SALESPERSON MOTIVATION

Sales motivation is everything a sales manager does to stimulate salespeople to accomplish a task. Because motivation comes from within, the sales manager does not actually motivate someone else. Instead, he sets up conditions under which a person is most likely to motivate himself. Understanding and implementing this definition is the key to any effort designed to build and maintain a strong, results-oriented, high-spirited sales organization.

1. Develop incentives and contests that incorporate active motivators for participants:

- Money (or its equivalent in goods and services)
- Rewards
- Recognition
- Competition (against others and/or a salesperson's previous achievements with suitable recognition)
- Most sales managers find that an incentive is more effective when offered as a reward for achieving an objective requiring extra effort. However, participants must believe the reward measures up to what's asked of them if they are to be self-motivated.
- Recognition must be immediate.
- The cost of the incentive or contest must be directly related to the extra profits expected.
- Competition, and effectiveness, is broadened when more than one prize is awarded—and they are different from past prizes.

Consider Chevrolet incentive and recognition programs.

- Encourage active local participation in national sales and merchandising campaigns.
- Promote qualifications for Chevrolet Honor organizations.

2. Involvement is a powerful way to trigger a person's inner motivation—especially when it directly involves the individual in his or her own job.

- Many sales managers divide involvement into four components:
 - Information
 - Agreement
 - Alternatives
 - Responsibility and authority
- Try evaluating your own ability to motivate other people in each of these four "involvement" areas through questions such as:
 - Sharing Information:
 - Do I believe that letting people know about a problem or situation helps motivate them on the job?
 - Do I find myself withholding information salespeople should have because it is negative, unpleasant or could cause controversy?

- Exploring Alternatives Together:
 - Do I ask other people for ideas, suggestions and recommendations before making a final decision?
 - Do I find myself listening to all suggestions with no intentions of changing my own position?
- Reaching Mutual Agreement:
 - Am I likely to insist on people following my directives whether they agree with me or not?
 - Do I feel that changing my mind or arriving at a compromise weakens my authority?
- Delegating Responsibility and Giving Authority:
 - Am I uneasy about giving a person complete responsibility because, in the long run, I have to accept and live with whatever results the person achieves?

Myrna:

The familytreemaker site info includes a deed record of Catharine (Climan) Efaw. It mentions her children, which include "Joshua Goddard and Margaret his wife". The generation 1, of this record, gives will of John Climan and gives names and dates of children. Catherine b. 1768 Hardy Co Virginia.

Catherine's married David Efaw. His enlistment record was in 1783 at age 18, found in Archives in Richmond VA state his birthplace as PA.

Catherine and David had 12 children, one son who was also named David, b abt 1798, Loudoun Co VA (later WV) d. Oct 1854, Marion Co WV. Their oldest child is Margaret Efaw b. abt 1785, Hardy Co, VA d May 19, 1872, Marion Co WV. Married Joshua Goddard.

children are:

John Goddard, b June 20, 1812
William K. Goddard, b abt 1813
Francis Goddard, b abt 1820
Elizabeth Goddard, b. Jan 20, 1820
Mary Polly Goddard, b abt 1823
Margaret Goddard, b abt 1824
Jesse Goddard, b abt 1826
Joshua Goddard, b abt 1827
Reason Goddard, b abt 1827
Katherine Goddard, b abt 1829
David Goddard, b abt 1830

The impression I get is that all five generations of Efaw lineage was submitted by Robert Efaw, whose name I mentioned in a previous e-mail. refaw@hhs.net He could probably cite for you whatever sources he has for this information. So far, I have just accepted the information until time for further research. He does quote many sources and appears to be Hope this helps. You might want to visit that familytreemaker site, to see it all in context.

I find no connection to Ada Cross...yet. Although Gus' father's family also went to Ohio, so you never know.

By the way, I know just where Sumner is. I attended University of Puget Sound, when it was College of....When I went back in 1996 for my 40th college reunion and stayed in SUMNER, with Shirley and John Kemman. He is a retired doctor. Oops, I just checked my address book and it says Edgewood, but it used to be Sumner. We have an acquaintance in this RV park named Hal Hood, and he has a place in Sumner, where he goes in the summer (when it gets to 113 degrees in the high desert, here). I was in the concert choir, when I was in school, and we traveled all around the state and nearby states on our spring tours. My brother lives in Bellingham. We were in WA just this past Sept.

I will send you whatever we received from Linda Goddard Stout, in the next couple of days. I will just copy it on our scanner.

The Memphis, Mo. Reveille
27 May 1886

Levi Wise celebrated his 81st birthday last Friday. Quite a number of the friends & relatives were present and participated in the enjoyment. Father Wise is well preserved for one of his age, and seems to enjoy life as well as those of us who are younger. We hope he may live to enjoy these annual reunions for many years to come.

Dear Shirley:

Since we must be cousins I am taking the liberty of using your first name. Is that O.K.?

Finally I have some things to send you about the Goddards.

- 1) The Pedigree chart has all the information I had plus some you sent me and some that Linda Stout sent.
- 2) The family group record for my family is documented of course by our birth, marriage and death certificates.
- 3) The family group chart for Ivan and May Landes is documented as noted at the bottom of the sheet. I have requested a birth certificate from Illinois for Ivan, my father, but have not received one yet.
- 4) The family group chart for George Goddard and Barbara Helper lists children from my list, your list and Linda's list. I hope the "x" and "#" symbols make sense. I have a copy of the George/Barbara marriage certificate, as well as death certificates for Lavinia (Laura) and Hellena (Lena) Goddard (copies enclosed.) Shirley, note that the birth dates for Laura and Lena are different than the dates you have.
- 5) The family group sheet for William Landes and Belle Goddard is based mostly on records my Mother had written but I do not have certificates except for the weddings.
- 6) The typewritten sheet is one Mother wrote for my brother and me.

I have requested other information and of course will share whatever comes in. It is exciting to be working with two other people who care as much as I do about tracing our family. It is especially nice for me since you have been working so long and I have only just started.

If you write to me this summer ^{after April 20} please use my Colorado address.

This story was written by Mother (May N. Landes wife of Ivan Goddard Landes). There was no date on it but she wrote it approximately 19~~35~~⁴⁵ I am sure the information is mostly from family memories as there was no documentation attached.

REMEMBERING

FOR JACK & MAY

(Jackson Nicholls Landes and May Goddard Landes Howell)
Basic Facts.

Daddy - Ivan Goddard Landes - was born near Farmington, Illinois March 7, 1878., the son of William Franklin Landes - (from West Virginia) - and Belle Goddard. Grandma Belle's family lived in Mexico, Missouri. Her father had homesteaded there and there his children were born and brought up. William Goddard's wife was Barbara which is why you May were christened May Goddard Landes and you Barbara Jane Howell Bryant was called Barbara.

Grandpa Goddard came from England. His children were Mary, Mandy, - , - , George and Belle. Mary Goddard was married by had no children. The others including George were unmarried except for Belle, of course.

Belle's children were Ivan, your Daddy; Daisy, two years younger; George; and the baby girl Edna. Of these more later. More, too, about Belle, who was beautiful. There is a photograph of her as you will see. She was a school teacher in Mexico, Missouri. Most of Ivan's little boyhood was spent there on the Goddard's farm.

Little Edna died at the age of two of diptheria.

George grew to manhood and was killed in an accident when a horse ran away wrecking the carriage and killed George.

Daisy and Ivan were at the Grandmother's farm in Missouri visiting. They were riding a horse bare-backed. The horse became frightened and bolted. Ivan had the horse's neck and mane to hold onto but little Daisy had only Ivan to cling to and losing her hold with the bolting slid off the horse back landing on the tip of her spine. Two weeks later she died of meningitis but it was doubtless a result of the fall.

May Goddard LANDES HOWELL, a new member, is seeking information about her grandmother Belle GODDARD, and her family. Belle was a daughter of William and Barbara --7-- GODDARD who homesteaded near Mexico, Missouri. About 1877 Belle married William Franklin LANDES, probably in the Farmington, IL area. Their son, Ivan Goddard LANDES was born near Farmington in 1878. Mrs. Howell wonders if Belle had brothers and sisters, and who the parents of William were. Please write to May at P.O. Box 558726, Miami, FL 33255 if you can help her.

Karen LEMES's great-great-grandfather was John Murray HATSTAT who was born in Roxbury, MA 1829. His parents were Sarah GODDARD and George HATSTAT. John married Abigail Augusta SMITH in 1850 in Westbrook, CT, and died in 1894 in Cedar Rapids, IA. Mrs. Lemes would like more information his parents. Was Sarah GODDARD (1787?-pre 1830) the daughter of Edward and Ruth GODDARD of Athol, MA. Was George HATSTAT the son of George HATSTAT, SR. who immigrated from Holland in 1780. If you have information that would help Karen, write to her at Box 768, Los Altos, CA 9402

Fay HOODOCK and Shirley HAN-NAFORD continue to copy census indexes and actual census records. Every record we obtain makes it easier for us to identify those 'unknown' GODARD/GODDARDS. My book of census copies get thicker every week. For example we have copies of all the GODARD /GODDARDS (and other spelling variations) from indexes to New York censuses, 1790 through 1860. So if someone is looking for an ancestor who lived in New York state within that time period, we MAY be able to identify the person from the census records. It's also very helpful in putting families together. If you have access to census indexes, or have copied any GODARD /GODDARD census records, please send copies to Kathryn or me. Every new GODDARD connection that we find helps us to locate new 'cousins'.

Thanks to Shirley and Fay for all their work.

THE RUSH FAMILY

The information contained herein concerning the ascendants of Benjamin Rush (1717-1801), was furnished largely by Mrs. Jessie D. Whitfield, Washington, D. C., who was a Rush descendant and who during several years made intensive search in the libraries, and of official records in the counties of Westmoreland, King George and Prince William in Virginia.

With the Bible records and chart in the possession of the writer of these notes as a starting point, Mrs. Whitfield worked backward, establishing the antecedents of Benjamin Rush, Jr., (1717-1801) who was the first ancestor of whom our records told. Her information was very carefully transcribed from the original records and the compiler feels with her that there can be no doubt that the descent is established as given in these pages.

All descendants of the Rush family owe Mrs. Whitfield, as well as Miss Maud Kelly, a debt of gratitude, for they have been untiring in their labor and very generous with their information, which was procured at no little expenditure of time, labor and money. The information obtained by the compiler has been secured by endless hours of time, research in libraries and innumerable letters.

The persistent tradition in all branches of the North Carolina Rush's is that they were Quakers and related to Dr. Benjamin Rush. There can be no doubt that they were Quakers in the early days. See signature of Elizabeth Rush, widow of William Rush, to inventory of his personal property dated 2 March, 1708. "Elizabeth Rush, relict of William Rush within named, who being a Quaker, did in open court solemnly declare (as by law in that case provided,) that the same is a true, full and perfect acct," etc.

A later inventory, however, in North Carolina, that of Benjamin I, son of the above William and Elizabeth, is signed by his son, Benjamin Rush, executor, in 1768, on oath. This latter Benjamin Rush (1717-1801), was the first one of whom the half-compiled family chart speaks, and the note on the chart reads, "Old Benjamin Rush was a Quaker, had two wives, one of whom was Ailcy Grigsby." And further, "Old Ben Rush was related to Dr. Benjamin Rush of Philadelphia." He is referred to by many descendants in their letters as "Quaker Rush."

Dear Shirley,

However, I am very warm and snug here in my little living room with our wood-burning stove and stacks of books. For the past few days, I have been sitting here at the computer typing up letters. Now that the holidays are past, I am trying to get back into my research.

Dear Shirley

Hi! Just thought I would write you a line to see how you are doing. We have about 20 inches of snow on the ground now. It is very cold--about 20 below zero.

However, I am very warm and comfortable in my little living room with our wood-burning stove and electric heater. For the past few days I have been sitting here at the table, putting together letters. Now that the winter is here, I am trying to get back into my old habit.

After the snow I was at the local library and was looking through the old books. I found a very interesting book by Mark Twain, "The Gilded Age". It is a very funny book and I am reading it now.

I am also reading a book by John Galsworthy, "The Forsyte Saga". It is a very good book and I am enjoying it very much. I am also reading a book by George Bernard Shaw, "The Doctor's Dilemma". It is a very good book and I am enjoying it very much.

In looking through the new Directory of Members of the Goddard Association, I have found a few new names. So, I will be writing them soon.

Guess I will close for now. Hope you had a nice Christmas and have a great new year. We are all well and looking forward to warm weather again. Must say though, I really enjoy the snow!!

Write when you get a chance. Take care.

DEAR Shirley,

Thank you for your letter
and family charts.

Hannah Goddard Urick died in Ironton
Nov 1911. That's where her DEATH Record is at (Ironton Library). James died in 1882 and is buried in Ironton.

Some Records are in the Mormon
Library. That's where I first found Hannah's maiden name. The second time is in the book "Hanging Rock Iron Region" where it list her son John.
Also in the ~~1880~~¹⁹¹⁰ Soundex Lawrence Co
Upper twshp., Ironton I find her living with John

I was looking over your chart and I thought it interesting to find your birth-dates years and my parents are the same.

I don't find the Uricks in Lawrence
Co. until the 1860 census. In the book above it tells me that James Urick came to Lawrence Co. as a mere lad. I've done alot a research in Lawrence Co but Records are scarce past 1850.

I have not found any marriage record as of yet. They might of got married in Monroe Co or a county in between.

Linda Stout has already phoned me
And I send her all the information I have.

Do you have any info. on Hannah's mother and step-father? ^{Did they} move ~~to~~ to Lawrence Co? If you have any information or sources on them let me know.

The closest source is the Orlando Library, a hundred miles away. I get over there once every two months or so. I'll check the Lawrence Co 1850 and 1860 census for Hannah Wait. Did you find out who her husband was?

I sent Linda a copy of the Family information from the book "Hanging Rock Iron Region". I don't have another copy now but I have the book and I get a copy for you.

I have information on who the children.
Marriage Records, ect.

Well that's about it. Please drop me a line if you find any more info.

Thank you

P.S.

Could you check your sources for the birth of

Thomas C. Urick.

DEAR Shirley,

Thank you for your quick Response.

I+ puzzled me to about the BIRTH DATE of Thomas C Urick.
I was hoping that the census, from which I took the date from, was off a little. I do have a 1880 census that list the following: Thomas C URICK ^{BIRTH} 30 Oh, Vir, Pe

JAMES URICK died in 1882 AT 67 yrs. old BURIED AT Kelly Cem. And moved to Woodland Cem. IRONTON.
 I have family charts on up to me if you want them.

I check PERSONALLY with the IRONTON
 HEALTH DEPT for HANNAH'S DEATH RECORD.

They told me they didn't have it!!

I do not know where THOMAS C. is BURIED yet.

I can not find JAMES B URICK in the 1850 Census in 1850 in LAWRENCE Co. I've check the whole county census. I was hoping he's in Between LAWRENCE AND MONROE Co's.

I'm doing RESEARCH on JAMES'S FATHER. I think his name was MATHIAS URICK. I find a MATHIAS in Botetourt Co VIR in 1820-1830 census. It also say, in the "Hanging Rock Region" book he came from Botetourt Co. What I'm getting at. I find A MATHIAS URICK in the 1900 census (possible James's Brother) in Athens County. He's three years younger (MATHIAS).
 That might be a Lead. If I can help please let me know. Thank you for the copies yours in genealogy

DEAR Shirley,

ENCLOSED ARE my PEDIGREE CHARTS you mentioned you wanted.

YOUR THEORY ON HANNAH VISITING GEORGE IN MISSOURI IS INTERESTING. I FOUND GEORGE GODDARD IN A CENSUS RECORD WHEN I FIRST STARTED MY RESEARCH 5 YEARS AGO BUT I CAN'T REMEMBER WHERE IT IS.

I WAS CHECKING IN THE BOOK "HAUNTING ROCK IRON REGION" IT LIST GEORGE ON PAGES 354, 504 AND 1352. I ALSO FOUND IN THE IRONTON PUBLIC LIBRARY A PAGE REFERRING TO GEORGE GODDARD. IT SAYS:

THE NEXT FARM BELOW WAS OWNED BY A MAN NAME OF HELPER. MR HELPER HAD TWO SONS AND ONE DAUGHTER. THE DAUGHTER MARRIED A MAN NAME GEORGE GODDARD, WHO RAN A BLACKSMITH SHOP AT THE MOUTH OF BONEYARD HOLLOW FOR A NUMBER OF YEARS. BACK AT THE FOOT OF THE HILL THERE WAS A SMALL FARM OWNED BY A MAN NAMED GEORGE NEFF, HE SOLD OUT TO JOHN COLLINS AND MOVED TO THE WEST, LATER THE FARM WAS OWNED BY JAMES URICK

SO YOU SEE, IT LOOKS LIKE THE URICKS AND GODDARDS WERE NEIGHBORS. GEORGE MARRIED BARBARA HELPER AS YOUR RECORDS INDICATE.

I didn't document this page I have but I did find it in the Ironton Library. If I go there this summer I make you a copy. MR. THUMA is the man at the library that helped me if you want to correspond to him.

To my knowledge no one on the Cummins or Urick sides are doing any research on the families.

It's puzzling to me. James Urick came to Lawrence Co "As a mere lad" or so it says in the book "Hanging Rock Iron Region" Book. But I can't find him in the 1830-40-50 census. He was born 1823. Maybe your theory is right.

Well anyway, if I can help let me know. Thank you.

DEAR Shirley,

Glad to hear from you.

I just return from Ohio and also found James Urick while looking up George Goddard in the 1850 census.

I agree that most likely Hannah is in your line.

I believe that Eliza and Mathias are Uricks. I have done some research in VA. on the Urick. I have found Mathias and Lydia Doney Urick married 10 May 1800 in Berkley Co VA. As a matter of fact there's only one Urick family in 1810 (Frederick Co) 1830 (Botetourt Co) and 1816 1838 he (James) owned Land in Botetourt Co, VA. I have not found the family in 1840 census. They might have been on the move. I did find a James Urick in Belmont Co, Ohio in 1840 but the ages don't match.

I would like Acc of the line on the Goddards from Hannah back as far as you go back. Just the pedigree charts also a brief history of the family.

He's a few of the Urick marriages:

Thomas C Urick	married	MELVINA Hull	1 Feb 1870
Nolana Lydia Urick	"	William Lynd	?
Ann Elizabeth	"	David Shaffer	23 Mar 18?

Emily F Urick married James C Arge 28 MAR 1878
Albert J " " Mary ABRAM 23 MAR 1879
John M V " Emma NANCE 6 JAN 1896
Lilly Belle " Died young. ALL in LAWRENCE Co OHIO

Thomas is my Line. John M was, I BELIEVE, the most PROSPEROUS AS it says in the Book
"Hanging Rock Iron Rock". ALBERT WAS A LAWYER in IRONTON for many years. The Family were MEMBERS of IRONTON Baptist Church.

Family hear-say says William (Thomas's son) moved to Ashland Ky to marry Martha KAZEE. His Family DISAPPROVED of the MARRIAGE and DISOWNED him. I have no
RECORDS of the Uricks, as far as Family file, past William Urick.

I don't really know exactly where HARRISONVILLE is but I think it very close to PORTSMOUTH.
Maybe up the River a couple miles. The BENNETT
WERE one of first settlers in Scioto Co Ohio.
MORE info CAN BE found in County histories on Scioto Co.

Any more question please write. Always glad to hear from A Distant Cousin.

Thank you
yours in genealogy

FOURTH WARD OF IRONTON

Scale 250 Feet to an Inch.

Humphryes became assistant engineer at the Scioto Furnace, where he remained one year, and then spent a like period as engineer at the Buckhorn Furnace, following which he became engineer for the iron and steel plant located at Ironton, and was so engaged three years. This was followed by a similar period in the same capacity at the Big Etna Furnace, and one year at the Campbell Sarah Furnace, this being succeeded by four years at the Hanging Rock Furnace. In 1890 Mr. Humphryes became identified with the American Water and Guarantee Company, of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, as constructing engineer, and for nearly a quarter of a century was in charge of the water works at Little Rock, Arkansas. Mr. Humphryes is an expert in the placing, construction and perfecting of water works and equipment, particularly in the line of filtration plants, and at this time has two patents on filtration improvements which are meeting with much favor among constructing engineers all over the country. He has made a specialty of putting in water works machinery, and although he is now somewhat retired from active business life, is still frequently called into consultation in the installing of important and difficult plants.

Mr. Humphryes was married at Ironton, November 2, 1878, to Miss Maria Lanton, daughter of Edward Lanton of this city, and five children have been born to this union: Edward, who is general superintendent of the water works at Little Rock, Arkansas, married Pearl Horschell, and has one child—Edward, Jr.; Howard, a railroad machinist of Dells-worth, Minnesota; Addie, a stenographer living at Erie, Pennsylvania; Bertha, who is a well-known actress; and Chester, a practicing chemist. Mr. Humphryes is a member of the Masonic fraternity and of the Presbyterian Church, and his political belief is that of the republican party. He is an ardent sportsman, and frequently takes hunting and fishing trips, seldom returning without some worthy trophy of field or stream. Since returning to Ironton, in 1914, he has renewed acquaintances and re-established friendships, and is continuing to show an interest in the growth and development of the region to which he first came so many years ago.

JOHN M. URICK. Of the merchants who have assisted in sustaining the business integrity of Ironton, more than passing mention is due John M. Urick, a member of an old and well-known family of the Hanging Rock Region, who for fifteen years has been the proprietor of a grocery store here. This business has enjoyed a consistent and pleasing growth, and reflects the untiring zeal, energy and perseverance of the man who, from a small beginning, has advanced its fortunes to the prominence of a necessary commercial adjunct.

Mr. Urick was born at Ironton, Lawrence County, Ohio, April 25, 1865, and is a son of James B. and Hannah (Goddard) Urick. His father was born in Botetourt County, Virginia, in 1823, and was brought to Lawrence County when a mere lad, here growing up amid agricultural surroundings and early adopting the vocations of gardener and farmer, in which he continued to be engaged throughout his active years. An industrious and hard-working man, he rounded out a long and useful life in 1888, when he passed away at the age of sixty-five years. Hannah (Goddard) Urick was born in Pennsylvania in 1827, came to Ohio in girlhood, and here died May 11, 1911. She was the mother of ten children, as follows: Thomas C., Emily F., Lydia, James A., Rosie, Mary, Luella, Sarah, John M., William and Lily, of whom Lydia, James A. and John M. are the survivors.

John M. Urick received only ordinary educational advantages in his youth, for when he was a student in the Seventh Grade he laid aside his books to assist his father in his gardening operations. Following this he was employed in a brick yard for three years, and then received his introduction to the grocery business as driver of the delivery wagon for W. H. Lynd, an Ironton grocer. After six months, his industry and faithfulness won him promotion to the position of inside clerk, in which capacity he was employed for fifteen years, during which time he familiarized himself thoroughly with every detail of the business. Mr. Urick entered the business field on his own account June 19, 1899, when he opened an establishment at Seventh and Monroe streets, a property which he still owns and in which he has continued to carry on a large and constantly-increasing business. He has added frequently to his stock and by his diligent attention to the requirements of the public, his careful and intelligent buying, his courteous treatment of customers and his prompt and honest dealings, he has established a trade which is not surpassed, either in quantity or quality, by any similar patronage in Ironton. Mr. Urick is the owner of his own residence at No. 205 South Seventh Street and several other residence properties, and is a director of the Star Building and Loan Association. As a side line he raises White Leghorn chickens, poultry of a superior quality, and at this time has a flock of about 300 hens. Mrs. Urick, who is also possessed of good business ability, raises dahlias for the market and receives a goodly return for her labors. They are members of Emanuel Methodist Church. Mr. Urick is a member of the Ironton Chamber of Commerce and has shown his interest in educational affairs by serving three years as a member of the school board. He is a republican in his political views, and his fraternal connection is with the Knights of Pythias.

Mr. Urick was married January 6, 1896, to Miss Emma Nance, daughter of William Nance, a retired farmer of Lawrence County. Eight children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Urick, namely: Hanna, Rachel, Mathilda, Carrie, Frank, Nellie, Margaret and Paul.

FRED W. GEIGER. Twice retained as receiver for the Ebert Brewing Company of Ironton, Lawrence County, Mr. Geiger, who is the incumbent of this responsible position at the present time, has shown much discrimination and executive ability in handling the affairs of this business through his connection with which and other important interests in Ironton he has become well known as one of the representative young business men of his native city.

Mr. Geiger was born at Ironton on the 12th of April, 1886, and is son of Henry J. and Fannie (Ebert) Geiger, both natives of Klingenberg, Germany, where the former was born in 1850 and the latter in 1853. The father was reared and educated in his native land, where he learned the brewer's trade with all of the thoroughness common to the industry in Germany. In 1869 he immigrated to the United States and after remaining about three months in New York City he came to Ohio and established his residence in Ironton, where he was long and prominently identified with the brewing business and where he has lived virtually a retired life since 1905. He and his wife are well known and popular representatives of the German element of citizenship in Lawrence County and they are the parents of seven children, namely: Leo N., Mathilde B., Henry J. Jr., Fred W., Otto A., Charles T. and Bertha E.

Fred W. Geiger is indebted to the public schools of Ironton for his early educational discipline and after his graduation in the high school as a member of the class of 1904, he completed a course in the Davidson Business College, in which he was graduated in 1905. Accepting a clerical position in the Iron City Savings Bank, he won advancement through effective service, having held the position of bookkeeper until his promotion to that of teller. Of the latter post he continued to be a valued incumbent until 1908, when he resigned his position to accept that of receiver of the Ebert Brewing Company. He served in this capacity until 1911 and brought the business of the concern into excellent condition. After his retirement he was engaged in the flour and feed business until 1913, when he was again appointed receiver of the Ebert Brewing Company, to the affairs of which he has since continued to give the major part of his time and attention, with the result that he is again bringing the enterprise into effective order, with much discrimination in the administration of the large financial interests involved.

Mr. Geiger is one of the popular young men in the business and social circles of his native city and is the owner of the attractive home at

Department of Public Health, Seattle, Wash., June 10, 1904.

198 South Fifth Street, the same being made a center of gracious hospitality with his popular wife as its chatelaine. Mr. Geiger was first sergeant of the Ironton High School Cadets during three years of his student life; he is a member of the Ironton Chamber of Commerce, is affiliated with the local lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, and both he and his wife are communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

On the 28th of November, 1911, was solemnized the marriage of Mr. Geiger to Miss Minnie Fuller, daughter of Van Fuller, a representative citizen of Ironton, and the one child of this union is Helen Louise.

W. WILSON LYND, M. D. One of the representative physicians and surgeons of the younger generation in his native city and county, Doctor Lynd is established in the successful general practice of his profession at Ironton, the judicial center and metropolis of Lawrence County, with office and residence at 306 South Sixth Street. In the surgical branch of his profession he has performed numerous minor operations and assisted in delicate major operations, but he has not found it expedient to specialize in any phase of practice, as his services have been in requisition along general lines and his success has been such as to indicate popular appreciation of his ability and of his devotion to his exacting and humane vocation.

Doctor Lynd was born at Ironton on the 25th of January, 1879, and is a son of William H. and Nalona L. (Urick) Lynd, both representatives of honored pioneer families of Lawrence County, where the father was born, at Burlington, on the 3d of November, 1852, the mother having been born at Ironton in 1854 and having here been called to the life eternal when but thirty years of age, her death having occurred in 1884. William H. Lynd later wedded Miss Flora Cumpston and they have five children—Georgia, Benjamin, Grace, Howard and Edith. Of the four children of the first marriage one died in infancy and those surviving are James C., Josephine, and Dr. W. Wilson Lynd, of this review. William H. Lynd is a well known citizen and business man of Ironton, where he is engaged in the retail grocery business.

In the public schools of Ironton Doctor Lynd continued his studies until his graduation in the high school, in 1899, and in preparing himself for the work of his chosen profession he was signally favored in having the advantages of that excellent institution, Miami Medical College, in the City of Cincinnati. He was there graduated as a member of the class of 1903, with the degree of Doctor of Medicine, and he soon afterward established himself in practice at Ironton, where he continued his labors until a nervous breakdown rendered it expedient for him to lessen his strenuous application and seek more or less radical change, in 1908. He passed about six months in the City of Hanford, California, and thereafter remained about three months in New Mexico, where he passed the required examination and qualified for practice though his brief sojourn in that section of the Union did not permit him to engage in professional work save in an incidental way. Upon his return to Lawrence County, Ohio, the doctor engaged in practice at South Point, where he built up a substantial business and remained three years. In April, 1912, he resumed practice in the City of Ironton where he has since continued his successful efforts and controls an excellent practice of representative order. He keeps in close touch with the advances made in medical and surgical science, by availing himself of the best of its standard and periodical literature and through his active affiliation with the Ohio State Medical Society and the Lawrence County Medical Society. While a resident of South Point he served as health officer of the village.

In politics Dr. Lynd continues to pay unfaltering loyalty to the republican party; both he and his wife hold membership in Emanuel Methodist Episcopal Church; and he is affiliated with the Knights Pythias, the Knights of the Golden Eagle, the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, and the Daughters of America, besides which he is identified with the Ironton Chamber of Commerce and is an earnest supporter of its high civic and commercial ideals and policies.

On the 4th of June, 1902, Dr. Lynd wedded Miss Clara Weist, daughter of Henry Weist, a prominent contractor and builder in the City of Cincinnati, and the two children of this union are Lester C. and W. Wilson, Jr.

JOSEPH C. WEBER. One of the thriving enterprises of Ironton which occupies a firmly-established place in the commercial world is Weber Brothers' Greenhouse, located at No. 377 South Sixth Street. This business is characteristic of the energy, progress and good management which have contributed to Ironton's prestige, and its managers, Joseph C. and Frank M. Weber, are justly accounted leaders among the young generation of business men here. They are sons of Joseph and Mary (Dirker) Weber, the former of whom was born in Germany in 1846 and came to the United States in young manhood, settling at Hecla Furnace, Lawrence County, Ohio. For many years Mr. Weber was engaged in blacksmithing, and was known as an industrious and energetic business man, but is now retired from active life and lives quietly at his home in Ironton. The mother, who also survives, was born in Lawrence County, Ohio, in 1854. There were twelve children in the family, as follows:

I told you I was going thru all my paperwork and am going to scan it then throw all the paper out. Well as I have been going thru I have found mostly names, dates and places that did not get input. Today I found this information. A couple letters that Martha Bailey wrote and it was not in my computer. I am not sure if at the time I thought it was something that did not need to be shared or exactly why I didn't include it but I have now added it all just as she wrote it. Then I started thinking that maybe I didn't send it onto you. Some of it is quite enlightening and some just down right sad.

Wiley Shelton Goddard (from his daughter Martha 10/4/1982)
10/4/1982 Martha Bailey - My father was a farmer and we lived on Rhines Ridge in Woodland WV until my mother left him and we moved to Falls Church VA. I was 9 years old. This was the spring of 1940. I never saw my father again.

In 1946/47 he was located in the Manteno State Hospital in Manteno IL. He was completely psychotic. His brain was deteriorating from the long abuse of alcohol. He left WV when he got a young girl pregnant and she died in childbirth and they were going to prosecute him. I understand from my mother that he was more animal than human. Every family has a black sheep in the family and he was his. The 14 year old girl that he got pregnant he sired himself from an ignorant halfwit of Rocky Fork.

Paul Lemuel Goddard - Martha ask me to contact Clifford for Pauls address. Her comment was "I didn't claim him myself. He is well off but not a very good person in my book. He is a liar, a cheat and a thief. When my mother died he stole the flowers and shrubbery from her yard and everything else he could get his hands on.

Martha Bailey 9/28/1982 - My father died insane and it will always be my belief that he was mentally ill all his life. There was little known of mental illness in those days and no treatment for it. We were a hostile family, (still are). When we all used to get together there was always a fight.

My mother was neurotic from a bad childhood and abuse from my father. She was ver dominating woman and hard to get along with as she like to lay down the law and give the order. She was a hard working woman and ran a boarding house for a living. She only had a 4th grade education but had a tremendous amount of common sense and could write a nice letter, read well and keep her own business accounts. I grew up as an only child as my sister Mary and my brothers Paul and Clifford are a lot older than me. She never let me forget how unwanted I was and how I kept her from leaving my father etc. I met Ray Bailey and quit school and got married to get away from her. She resented me all her life. After I was married I finished school and became a beautician and went far. At the age of 30 I was managing a 3 story beauty salon (90 employees) for Helena Rubinstein in Washington DC. I did this several years. When my husband died I had my three children in school. He died at the!

His life is a fairy tale success story. He has worked very very hard and is presently the youngest District Manager the company has. He lives in style and has a lovely home and family. Just last week on Sept 23, the day his first son was born he got promoted to a higher level. He makes $59,000 a year. That isn't a fortune but he is only 35 yrs old. He is the only grandson or (grandchild) out of the Wiley Goddard family other than my youngest son Woodrow to acquire a college degree. He was the first.

He is good looking, lots of personality to go with his success. His wife is a lovely-refined girl from Boston MA. She is a Vassar Graduate and knows all the social graces and an asset to him in every way.

Woodrow lives in Charlotte NC. He graduated from North Carolina State University in 1978 as a Mechanical Engineer and works for Duke Power. He is in the design department. He is extremely intelligent. He is also an accomplished musician and has played professional as well as done T.V. Since college he has devoted his time to his work. He has a lovely wife who is a medical technologist, Debra Gaston from Jamestown NC. Her parents are a bunch of pious hypocritical bastards who don't approve of me. I smoke, cuss and am a Catholic. They have put a cold wall between myself and Woody. Debbie his wife is the pick of the litter. She came from one of 5 girls. Two of them got husbands but I believe the Gastons will have the other three around awhile. Damdest ugliest girls I ever saw. Woody and Debbie have no children at this time.

My daughter went to school at the University of California at Berkeley and the University of Vancouver. She married in 1970 to a young Dr. from Fresno. It ended in divorce. She is a graphic artist and lives and works in Alexandria VA. She has had three nervous breakdowns since 1975. She has an inherited weakness from the Goddard family. Every family had one child that had mental problems. They will all deny it but they are high-strung people and besides the truth never hurt anyone. Insanity runs in the family. She is educated, makes a good living, lives on the 16th floor of a luxury high rise and has a lot going for her.

As for me I have changed professions and have taken up nursing. I like it and make good money. I do private duty work. I am planning on going to R.N. schools soon. I am presently a N.A. I do love my work. I am 51 years old but never want to retire. I am sort of a lone and not close to my brothers. They grew up on a farm and I in the city. Myself and my children are sophisticated (she spelled it sopteisticated) and educated. They aren't and we just don't have much in common. In fact, they haven't got the manners of a pig. You probably think I'm terribly but what I have written is how I see it. (Martha bailey 9/22/1982) age of 46 and left me nothing. I moved to Millers Creek NC to be near my brother whom I thought would be a father figure for my 12 yr. old son Woodrow. I sure got fooled. My brother and his wife Byrdie were jealous of me. I was never introduced to or accepted by any of their friends. Clifford sold milk to the neighbors and delivered it on the way to work. He charge the others including his sister-in-law, Ruth Lovette who is a millionaire 50 cents a gallon. He charges me $1.00. They told people I was an alcoholic and all I did was stay drunk. I don't even drink. I had a rough row to how the 9 years I spent in NC. I guess that's why I took up with Monroe Perkins. I was alone and lonely beyond belief. I established a small baby sitting service in my home. That and my husband Social Security supported us and got my son Woody through school. My oldest son Leonard Ray Jr. graduated from VA Polytechnic Instate (VPI) in Blacksburg VA. He got his Bachelors degree in Business Administration and went to work for Exxon when he graduated in 1970.

Dear Mrs. Kinder,

Betty Cronin

Am so glad to hear we are of the same family - I have found no one else interested in the "Family Tree"

Am enclosing the census records I have and also the will of the original William - doesn't he sound like a nice person? Think we could be proud of him. He must have died shortly after the will was written and his wife was living with Francis in 1830. She must have died in 1835 was the property was sold in 1836. Henry Kallan Goddard must have been the oldest and was already set up on his farm. Wonder if Kallin is Elizabeth's maiden name?

Some of the family remembered that Francis had a falling out with the family and moved to Gallipolis, Ohio, so found him there in the 1880 census. Family called him Frank

When I became interested, mother just knew that her grandfather was John Goddard. I checked the court house and found his death notice that listed his parents as Joshua & Margaret Goddard. Also found many land transactions between Joshua and his sons. An aunt said they were supposed to own around 1000 acres at one time. Our farm of a little less than 100 acres just went out of the family and caused a few tears. My mothers eldest bro. bought it when grandpap retired to Moundsville with the understanding that it would stay in the family. He never had any children so when he died in March it went to his wife's name - she intended it to go to the family but died suddenly without a will so it went to her bro.'s and sister - the McCardle's. The old family graveyard is on the property owned by grandfather's bro. His daughter-in-law lives there now and they had no children, so it will probably go out of the family too. My g.grandfather John is buried there - there are many graves but many are just field stone so can't really say if Joshua is buried there. Some aunts remembered the old people saying Joshua's wife spoke very broken English.

I'll add now a mixture of things I have found in many places - maybe it will add a light somewhere.

This Week's Article...Sarah Anne Nice Cozart

Sarah Anne (Nice) Cozart was born in Marshall county, (West) Virginia about 1836 and died 20 April 1917. In 1853, she was united in marriage to James Cozart at West Alexander, Pennsylvania. To this union eight children were born, five girls and three boys. They were: Lavina Henthorne, Mary Jane Henthorne, John C. Cozart and Amanda Goddard, all now deceased; and George P. Cozart of Proctor, WV, Martha Knisely of Proctor, James M. Cozart of Jacksonburg, WV, and Emma R. Hoyt of New Martinsville, WV, who survive. After their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. James Cozart lived in Marshall county for eighteen years. They then moved to a farm near Proctor in Wetzel county. While living there, Mrs. Cozart was united with the Church of God. Afterwards, they moved to a farm near Jacksonburg, (WV) where they lived until their deaths. The deceased was over 81 years of age when she died. Up until the time of her last sickness, she did all her own work. The remains were laid to rest by Rev. E. D. Moore.

August, 1984

Dear Friends:

Have you ever noticed how events that you have scheduled way ahead in the future have a way of sneaking up on you? Well, that's the way it is with our sharing dinners. Though they're scheduled for October, they are really just around the corner. By now you've guessed that this letter is about our annual Report To The People Sharing Dinners.

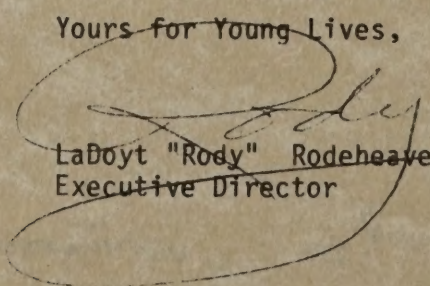

As the program at Youth for Christ has grown over the last several years, so has our need to become more and more effective in getting people together at our sharing dinners to hear the Youth for Christ story. The best means we have found of doing this is getting people to be table hosts and inviting their friends. Our goal is to have over 400 people at our sharing dinner in Wells County - October 29. In order for this to happen we need to enlist 50 table hosts.

This year's dinner not only holds its usual strategic importance but this is our 40th Anniversary of the founding of Youth for Christ. In order to enable us to meet our goals, we're holding an areawide dessert reception for all of our table hosts as we did last year. The dessert reception is being held September 10 at the Fort Wayne Marriott starting at 7:00 p.m. This reception is being underwritten so you and your spouse can be our guest. Here's what the reception is designed to do:

- 1 - To thank you for your past, present, and future involvement in Youth for Christ.
- 2 - To acquaint you with the exciting new developments in Youth for Christ.
- 3 - To give you in capsule form an idea of what the program is going to be like at your sharing dinner.
- 4 - To allow you the chance to enjoy our musical guest, Pete Carlson, who also will be the special musical guest at your dinner in October.
- 5 - To that evening provide you with everything you need to be a table host.
- 6 - To send you away with a renewed enthusiasm for what God is doing in reaching young people through Youth for Christ.

I need your help. Come join Tim and the rest of the Youth for Christ staff as "The Miracle Continues" September 10, 1984, Fort Wayne Marriott 7:00 p.m. Return your card and join us. We need to hear from you by August 22. God bless you.

HENRY GODDARD

There is still another member of the gang of considerable importance. This was Henry Goddard; whether a relative of Frank it is not known by the author, but it is probable that he was. He was a natural born thief, and a man without honor or conscience. He would steal the last cent from those who had gained it by charity. His wife was equally as bad. They would often steal from those who had done them a favor. They richly deserved the fate so nearly meted out from the hands of the red men.

There is another member of the gang, who if a description were given, it would be a repetition of the sketch just given of Henry Goddard. Jerry Bondine was a neighbor of Henry Goddard, and between the families, in their low and petty crimes, it is difficult to find a difference.

There is still another member, and the last we shall mention, as there are a number of families through the county who were connected with the gang through fear, and probably some we have mentioned were connected with them with the same excuse. It may be we have spoken too harshly of them, but we will now take up the sketch of the last man we shall mention.

FRANK GODDARD

We will now introduce a new character, well known to the people, Frank Goddard. None of the Jennings gang was more despised than he by the people of Wetzel County. He was not a thief or robber, but a spy, and gave the necessary evidence in court needed by the defence in the trials of the Jennings boys. He would visit the prosecuting attorney's office and try to find out the mode of procedure in the capturing of the Jennings gang, and would often denounce the Jennings boys for the purpose of securing something that might prove useful to them. There was a difficulty in proving his connection with the Jennings gang, but it was evident that he was a member. It is also evident that he received money for his services, for he had a family to keep, who were provided for. Yet he never worked.

REASON GODDARD

We will now introduce to the reader Frank Goddard's son, Reason Goddard. This man did little actual service for them. He was too cowardly and worthless, says Steinmetz, who, if all reports were true, ought to know. He was one who bore dispatches and, like his father, a spy. His stealing, if any was done, was on his own responsibility, and of a petty order. There is no use taking up the space in this book speaking of such a worthless character.

Frank Goddard

We will now introduce to the reader Frank Goddard's son, Reason Goddard. This man did little actual service for them. His stealing, if any was done, was on his own responsibility and of a petty order. There is no use taking up space in this book speaking of such a worthless character. Reason Goddard abandoned his wife and child and would accompany Rebecca J. Craig on petty crimes.

Henry Goddard

There is another member of the gang of considerable importance. This was Henry Goddard, whether a relative of Frank Goddard is not known by the author, but it is probable that he was. He was a natural born thief and a man without honor or conscience. He would steal the last cent from those who had gained it from charity. His wife was equally as bad. They would often steal from those who had done them a favor. They so richly deserved the fate so nearly meted out by the red men. There is another member of the gang who if a description was given, it would be a repetition of the sketch just given of Henry Goddard. Jerry Bondline was a neighbor of Henry's and between the families in their low and petty crimes, it is difficult to find a difference. There is still another member and the last we shall mention as there are a number of families through the country who were connected with the gang through fear, and probably some we have mentioned here were connected with them for some reason. We may have spoken too harshly of them.

Frank Goddard

John Franklin Goddard, 84, formerly of 69 Garfield Ave., died at the home of his granddaughter in Cuyhoga Falls on Wednesday, March 14. He was retired from Quaker State Refining Corporation and the Gallipolis Ice Company.

Born Aug. 17, 1905 at Gallipolis, he was the son of the late John Francis and Pearl Henry Goddard.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the general principles of the theory of the structure of the atom. It is shown that the structure of the atom is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, which are based on the principle of the uncertainty of the position and momentum of the particles.

2. In the second part of the paper, the author discusses the results of the experiments carried out in the laboratory of the Institute of Physics of the University of Moscow. It is shown that the results of the experiments are in good agreement with the theoretical predictions.

John H. Garner, 78, well known retired farmer, was fatally injured Monday shortly after dusk in an unusual accident in front of his North Main street home.

Mr. Garner was carrying a 60-pound tree limb on his shoulder as he crossed the street. Apparently he did not hear a car, driven by Harvey Anderson, 26, school bus driver, and as Anderson swerved the machine it struck the limb.

The impact broke Mr. Garner's neck and he was thrown to the pavement, suffering a fractured skull.

Rushed to the Wetzel County Hospital, Mr. Garner succumbed before the ambulance reached that institution.

Anderson Absolved

Anderson, who was cut by flying glass when the limb broke on the windshield of the automobile, was completely absolved of blame by State Trooper A. C. Bailey, who

Nancy Gorman

The subject of this sketch, Mrs. Nancy Gorman, departed this life near Little, Tyler county, W. Va., on the 11th day February, 1897, aged 60 years, 9 months and 28 days. Her parents moved from Preston county, Va. (now West Virginia) to Fayette county, Pa., when she was 8 years old, where she resided until 1860, when her parents moved back to her native state, but this time they chose Tyler county as their home. On the 14th of April, 1862, she was married to J. J. Gorman, who still survives her. She joined her fortunes with the Christian church in 1880, and from that time on till her death she proclaimed her faith with the knowledge that the promise (the righteous shall never be forsaken) would be her staff, her comfort and guide through all the troubles and trials of this life, and carry her safely across the dark river into the home prepared for her.

She leaves a husband, seven children, and a large number of friends and relatives who mourn their loss. She was laid to rest in the family graveyard in sight of the home she so lately left, and where she spent so many happy days of her life, to sleep peacefully, while her grave will be kept green by loving hands, and as we perform the sad duty let us not forget that she is only sleeping; and as we bid farewell to her for the last time on earth, let us remember that our loss is their gain, and that she has only gone on before.

1. To find the sum of the first 10 terms of the A.P.

Sol: Given, $a = 1$, $d = 2$, $n = 10$

Using the formula, $S_n = \frac{n}{2} [2a + (n-1)d]$

$\therefore S_{10} = \frac{10}{2} [2 \times 1 + (10-1) \times 2]$

$= 5 [2 + 9 \times 2]$

$= 5 [2 + 18]$

$= 5 [20]$

$= 100$

$\therefore$ The sum of the first 10 terms is 100.

Ans.

2. Find the sum of the first 15 terms of the A.P.

Sol: Given, $a = 2$, $d = 3$, $n = 15$

Using the formula, $S_n = \frac{n}{2} [2a + (n-1)d]$

$\therefore S_{15} = \frac{15}{2} [2 \times 2 + (15-1) \times 3]$

$= \frac{15}{2} [4 + 14 \times 3]$

$= \frac{15}{2} [4 + 42]$

$= \frac{15}{2} [46]$

$= \frac{15 \times 46}{2}$

$= \frac{690}{2}$

$= 345$

$\therefore$ The sum of the first 15 terms is 345.

Ans.

3. Find the sum of the first 20 terms of the A.P.

Sol: Given, $a = 3$, $d = 4$, $n = 20$

Using the formula, $S_n = \frac{n}{2} [2a + (n-1)d]$

$\therefore S_{20} = \frac{20}{2} [2 \times 3 + (20-1) \times 4]$

$= 10 [6 + 19 \times 4]$

$= 10 [6 + 76]$

$= 10 [82]$

$= 820$

$\therefore$ The sum of the first 20 terms is 820.

Ans.

4. Find the sum of the first 12 terms of the A.P.

Sol: Given, $a = 4$, $d = 5$, $n = 12$

Using the formula, $S_n = \frac{n}{2} [2a + (n-1)d]$

$\therefore S_{12} = \frac{12}{2} [2 \times 4 + (12-1) \times 5]$

$= 6 [8 + 11 \times 5]$

$= 6 [8 + 55]$

$= 6 [63]$

$= 378$

$\therefore$ The sum of the first 12 terms is 378.

Ans.

5. Find the sum of the first 18 terms of the A.P.

Sol: Given, $a = 5$, $d = 6$, $n = 18$

Using the formula, $S_n = \frac{n}{2} [2a + (n-1)d]$

$\therefore S_{18} = \frac{18}{2} [2 \times 5 + (18-1) \times 6]$

$= 9 [10 + 17 \times 6]$

$= 9 [10 + 102]$

$= 9 [112]$

$= 1008$

$\therefore$ The sum of the first 18 terms is 1008.

Ans.

6. Find the sum of the first 25 terms of the A.P.

Sol: Given, $a = 6$, $d = 7$, $n = 25$

Using the formula, $S_n = \frac{n}{2} [2a + (n-1)d]$

$\therefore S_{25} = \frac{25}{2} [2 \times 6 + (25-1) \times 7]$

$= \frac{25}{2} [12 + 24 \times 7]$

$= \frac{25}{2} [12 + 168]$

$= \frac{25}{2} [180]$

$= \frac{25 \times 180}{2}$

$= \frac{4500}{2}$

$= 2250$

$\therefore$ The sum of the first 25 terms is 2250.
